

New Jersey's Wineries Tour

SKYLANDS REGION
Lambertville
Milford
Clinton

New Jersey's wineries are one of the State's best kept secrets. Come discover why the Garden State's wines are growing popular with wine connoisseurs throughout the country.

Day One – A four day itinerary

Begin your winery tour in quaint Milford along the Delaware River. Visit the Alba Vineyards specializing in whites and offering a fine selection of reds and award winning dessert wines. Next, take a hot-air balloon over NJ's beautiful landscapes at "Inflight Balloon Adventures" in Clinton. Float above New Jersey's beautiful landscapes and see why we're called the Garden State. Back on the ground, enjoy lunch at the Coach N' Paddock restaurant and enjoy their American cuisine. Next visit Unionville or Amwell Vineyards, both in Ringoes. Both vineyards offer a wide selection of award winning whites, reds, and a new "ice" dessert wine. Visit historic Lambertville, stroll through the antique shops and dine at any one of Lambertville's fine restaurants like Hamilton's Grill Room, Lambertville Station or the Inn of the Hawke. Overnight: Lambertville.

New Jersey's Wineries Tour

GREATER ATLANTIC
CITY & SOUTHERN SHORE REGIONS

Hammonton
Cape May
Wildwood
Crest

New Jersey's wineries are one of the State's best kept secrets. Come discover why the Garden State's wines are growing popular with wine connoisseurs throughout the country.

Day Four – A four day itinerary

Start your day with a tour of the Tomasello Winery in Hammonton. A family-owned operation, founded in 1933 by Frank Tomasello, the winery offers a wide array of wines and champagnes. Then its on to New Jersey's southernmost tip – Historic Cape May and enjoy a light luncheon and tea in the Twining's Tea Room. Then take a guided tour of historic Cape May, with over 600 Victorian buildings flanked with gingerbread trim and a multitude of color. Venture over to Cape May Point State Park and get your legs ready to climb 199 steps to the top of the historic lighthouse. Revel in the breathtaking views of New Jersey's Cape and over to Delaware's Cape. Or stroll through the miles of trails along the shoreline and appreciate the delicate balance of nature. For your evening fare, experience some of New Jersey's finest dining in Cape May. Choose from over two dozen fine dining establishments – try the Washington Inn, Ebbitt Room, or the Pelican Club, each featuring Cape May Winery's award winning whites and reds, or enjoy the Catch of the Day at the Lobster House. Overnight: Wildwood Crest.
